

2018 ADVENT RETREAT

ST. INNOCENT OF ALASKA AND THE WAY OF THE CROSS

St. Vincent of Lerins Orthodox Christian Church

November 16, 17, 18

Friday 6pm: - Session 1: A Personal Story: How I came to Love the Way of the Cross

Friday 8:30pm: - Youth Group Event with Fr. Paul at Funk's House

Saturday 10am: - Session 2: The Way of the Cross: What are crosses, and why do we have to bear them? (bring a fasting potluck item for lunch!)

Saturday 1pm: - Session 3: The Steps of a Good Man are Ordered by the Lord (Psalm 37:23): How do we Embrace the Cross and Overcome?

Sunday 6pm: - Akathist to St. Innocent of Alaska
- Wrap Up/Q&A (bring a finger-food snack to share!)

*Child Care available at church ONLY ON SATURDAY. (Those taking advantage of-- bring some $$ to chip in if able, thanks!)

FR. PAUL JAROSLAW

Originally a Jew from Brooklyn, NY, Fr. Paul Jaroslaw was ordained to the priesthood in 1987 and spent 24 years as an Antiochian priest in Alaska before being assigned in 2011 to develop Prophet Elijah Mission of Ellensburg, Washington. He has served on the Board of Trustees for St. Herman of Alaska Orthodox Theological Seminary and also as a Christian School Principal. Fr. Paul, and his wife Kh. Thekla, have 4 wonderful adult-age children and have opened their home and their hearts to countless number of young people.